1) <https://www.elc-pa.org>

- Non-profit legal advocacy organization
- Mission: To ensure access to quality public education for all children in Pennsylvania.
- Individual representation, impact litigation, policy advocacy, and community engagement
- Priority Areas: fairness in school funding, equal access, and dismantling the school-to-prison pipeline.
- Offices in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia

2) <https://www.fundourschoolspa.org/>

- Website for Education Law Center of Pa's court case, William Penn School District et al. v. Pennsylvania Department of Education et al.
- Suing state for failing to uphold General Assembly's constitutional obligation to provide a "thorough and efficient" system of public education.

3) <http://educationvoterspa.org/>

- Education Voters Pennsylvania will work to ensure our elected officials adopt and implement a pro public education agenda. To that end we are:
 - Advocating for sound education policy.
 - Building demand for great schools by informing the public, leadership, and business community about the indisputable economic and social benefits of quality public schools and what is being done—or not done—about these critical issues in Harrisburg.
- Office located in Harrisburg

4) <https://paschoolswork.org/>

- Coalition of organizations from across PA advocating for public schools. (19 partner organizations)
- Mission: Our mission is to ensure that every child, regardless of their background or where they live, is attending a public school that has the funds necessary to help them succeed.
- Goals: Equity, Adequacy, and Excellence

5) <https://powerinterfaith.org/>

- Mission: POWER uses our belief in God's goodness and compassion for the suffering to organize and empower the people of Philadelphia, Southeastern, and Central Pennsylvania to live and work together so that God's presence is known on every block, that people work together to transform the conditions of their neighborhood, and that life flourishes for all.
- Campaign for Education: Focused on Fair Funding
- POWER chapters include: Philadelphia, Metro, Central PA, and Lehigh Valley

The logo for POWER, with the word in red serif font. The letter 'O' is replaced by a stylized human figure with arms raised.

6) <https://teachplus.org/PA>

- Pennsylvania Teacher Policy Advisory Board
- Training teachers as advocates to ensure that teachers and students thrive in Pennsylvania.
- Teach Plus trains teachers in understanding education policy as a lever for student success, community organizing and outreach, promoting teacher voice through writing op-eds and speaking to the media, providing public testimony, and more.
- 2020-21 focus on two major issues;
 - Equitable Funding
 - Recruitment and Retention of Teachers of Color

7) <http://supportequityfirst.org/>

- In 2016, Equity First was established to fight for equality of funding for all government funding, and end decades of massively biased funding discrimination
- Mission: To ensure access to quality public education for all children in Pennsylvania.
